What does this pledge mean?

The pledge is not a binding commitment at this stage, it just shows that you have a genuine interest in joining the Credit Union.

Why are we asking for these pledges?

It is a very helpful way for us to assess the need for a Credit Union in Eden. It is also a necessary part of the process we need to follow, before applying through the official process to form the Credit Union.

Who can join the Credit Union?

To join the Credit Union when it is formed, you must either live or work in the Eden District.

Data Protection

The Eden Credit Union Study Group will only use this information in relation to the future provision of a Credit Union Service, for the local community in Eden. It will not pass it on to any other organisations, other than a Credit Union with the above purpose. Signing this form gives your consent to allow the Eden Credit Union Study Group, together with a Credit Union with the above purpose, to hold your details in an electronic format.

What next?

If you would like to support a Credit Union in Eden, please fill in this pledge form either online at www.edencreditunion.org.uk, drop it off at your local library or post it to us at: Eden Community Unit, Penrith Library, St Andrews Church Yard, Penrith, CA11 7YA
